

Buffett, Birds and Beef: The Great Platte River Road

We start our tour in Omaha, Nebraska's largest city and home to Warren Buffett (the Oracle of Omaha), where we'll visit many of this business magnate, investor, and philanthropist's favorite points of interest and hangouts. The birding part of our tour takes us to Lincoln and then the Central Flyway where we come face-to-face with more than 600,000 sandhill cranes who roost in this part of the Platte River during their annual spring migration. A guided sunset tour and sunrise tour give us two different perspectives of these unique birds, also known as living dinosaurs. As far as the beef portion of the tour goes, we venture to North Platte to learn where our beef comes from and how it's processed, followed by a full meal consisting of five cuts of delicious Nebraska beef.

Day 1 Omaha, Bellevue

FONTENELLE FOREST NATURE CENTER

Breakfast this morning will be at Warren Buffett's favorite McDonald's followed by a Warren Buffett Driving Tour where an experienced step on guide will highlight some of his favorite locations throughout Omaha. After lunch, we head south to Bellevue and the Fontenelle Forest Nature Center to learn about the facility's dedication to help injured birds of prey through their Raptor Rescue Program and the Raptor Woodland Refuge. Here owls, hawks, falcons, and other species that no longer can survive in the wild live within "homes" designed to fit their natural habitats.

It is now back to Omaha to experience flavorful gourmet ice cream at its best at eCreamery in Omaha's historic Dundee neighborhood. Featured on the show Shark Tank, the mouth-watering ice cream has also been listed as one of Oprah's favorite things. Warren Buffet took Paul McCartney there when the music legend visited Omaha. Try butter brickle, Warren's favorite flavor. Dinner tonight is Gorat's Steakhouse, one of Warren Buffett's favorite restaurants that has been an Omaha tradition for more than 70 years and has hosted celebrities and dignitaries from around the world. Overnight: Omaha

Day 2 Omaha, Lincoln

Start the day off with eclectic breads and tortes based on “Old Country” recipes at Lithuanian Bakery & Café while listening to the story of the family and how they immigrated to Nebraska. Next, it is time to explore Nebraska Furniture Mart, North America’s largest furnishing store to hear their unique story followed by some time to shop before heading to lunch at Dairy Queen, another one of Warrant Buffett’s favorite places to relax and eat. Your last two stops before departing Omaha are The Rose Theatre and Omaha Community Playhouse. Rose Theatre has been at the heart of Omaha’s dramatic and arts scene since 1948 and its purpose is to enrich the lives of children and their families through live theatre and the arts.

Omaha Community Playhouse is the largest community theater in the country and while there you will learn all about the process of putting on a large stage production including set and costume design. Now it is time to depart Omaha and head to Lincoln for dinner at The Green Gateau. This up-scale neighborhood restaurant in the heart of downtown Lincoln combines French-influenced American contemporary cuisine in a cozy, European country inn setting. Overnight: Lincoln

Day 3 Lincoln, Grand Island

After breakfast, our first stop is Spring Creek Prairie Audubon Center, an 850-acre tallgrass prairie nature preserve near Denton, southwest of Lincoln. It is home to more than 220 bird species, 30 mammal species, 350 plants, and 50 butterfly species. Afterward, head back to Lincoln and its Historic Haymarket District for a delicious lunch at Lazlo’s Brewery & Grill, Nebraska’s first brewpub. Do not forget to save some time for a little shopping before heading west to Grand Island’s 1937 Art-Deco Grand Theatre for an introductory program about the sandhill cranes given by an experienced guide. Once we have become more familiar with these majestic birds, our next stop is an evening sandhill crane viewing adventure along the Platte River Crane Trust Nature & Visitor Center. Overnight: Grand Island

Day 4 Grand Island, Kearney

Breakfast this morning is at The Chocolate Bar, a trendy café with a big city ambiance in downtown Grand Island before heading to Studio K Art Gallery to get in touch with our inner artists to create our own unique sandhill crane painting. Once we finish downtown, it is time to head to Raising Nebraska at Fonner Park. This 25,000-square-foot interactive museum connects consumers with farmers who raise their food by explaining the steps from “farm to fork.” Experience a virtual combine harvest experience, full-sized pivot irrigation system, a 50-foot-long interactive floor map of Nebraska, and an interactive dinner table. Now it is time for lunch and to go back into the past at Stuhr Museum of the Prairie Pioneer. Declared one of the top ten living history museums in the country, this amazing museum transports us back to the early pioneer and settlement days of Nebraska.

Fonner Rotunda houses one of the state’s finest collections of cowboy and Native American art and artifacts while the annual “Wings over the Platte” exhibit during the spring sandhill crane migration displays artwork by artists from across the country highlighting the migration and is a “must-see” for any bird lover. Now we are off to Kearney to visit The Archway, an impressive interactive museum that commemorates the nation’s westward expansion through interactive exhibits and self-guided audio tours. On a side note, at a height of 310 feet, this is the only tourist attraction in the country to span a federal interstate highway. Our next stop in Kearney is Classic Car Collection where we can wander through more than 200 classic cars that highlight the evolution and art of the automobile and its impact on our lives. Dinner tonight is at Alley Rose in downtown Kearney to feast on one of its delicious locally prepared signature dishes. Overnight: Kearney

Day 5 Kearney, North Platte

We depart Kearney early morning before the sun rises for a guided sandhill crane viewing on the banks of the Platte River at Rowe Sanctuary where thousands of cranes start their morning routine before heading into the surrounding fields to forage for food. Next, we head west to North Platte and the “Here’s the Beef” tour at the West Central Research & Extension Office has educators and a chef from a local restaurant available to explain the steps needed to raise and process beef from pasture to the table. Afterward, we can feast on a delicious Nebraska beef lunch prepared on site.

After lunch, we head out into the fields with Dusty Trails for an afternoon sandhill crane viewing tour during the most active time of day for these birds where we can witness some of their unique courtship behaviors. Afterward, it is time to “Ride with the Wild Bunch.” We meet Colonel William F. “Buffalo Bill” Cody and his wife to hear about their lives and their interesting adventures. Afterward, hop aboard a horse drawn wagon to nearby Lincoln County Historical Museum for a tour of the museum, including an authentic recreated Old West town and artifacts highlighting the story of the famous World War II North Platte Canteen. Now it is time to head to Golden Spike Tower & Visitor Center for a bird’s eye view of the world’s largest railroad classification yard from the 7th floor open air observation deck or the 8th floor enclosed deck. While there we will enjoy a private catered dinner watching the sun set over Bailey Yard.
