ADVENTURES

STANNARD ROCK
LAKE SUPERIOR MICHIGAN

Lake Trout » This isolated reef complex 40 miles offshore from Marquette, Michigan, provides unmatched opportunities to catch trophy lake trout while casting or jigging.

Contact: Daybreak Charters, daybreakfish.com; Shelter Bay Charters, shelterbaycharterfishing.com.

Steve Ryan

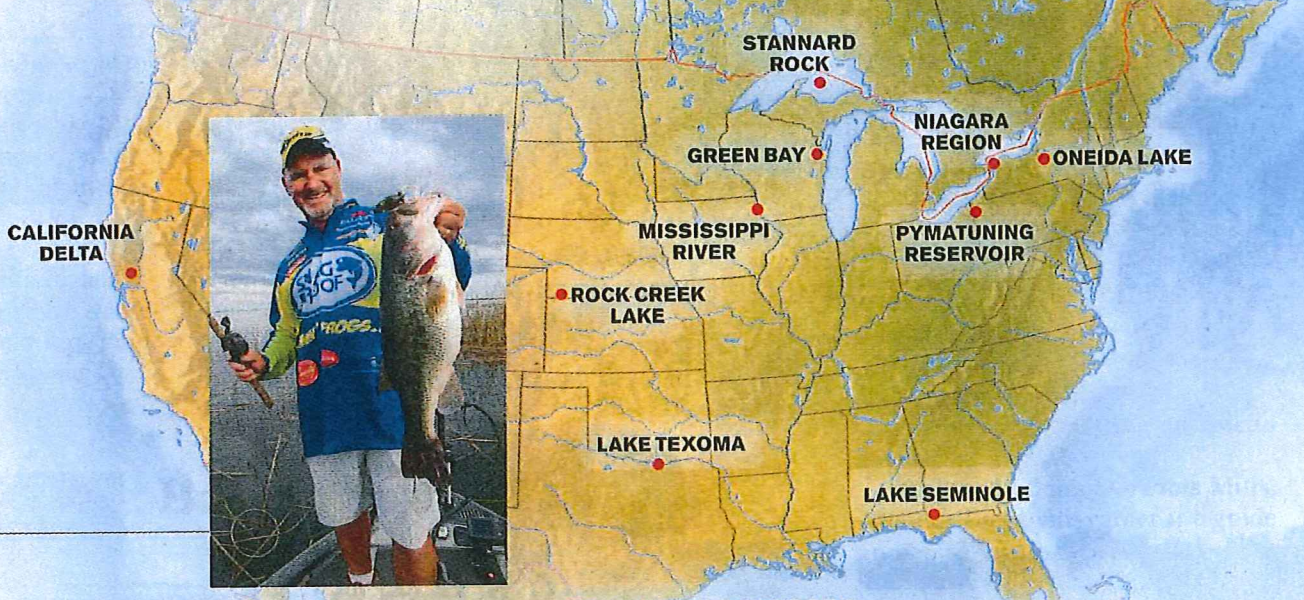

ROCK CREEK LAKE NEBRASKA

Largemouths » Fish this 50-acre reservoir in southwestern Nebraska, or nearby Swanson Reservoir, for walleyes, catfish, and hybrid stripers.

Contact: Guide Marty Hughes, kayakjak.com; lodging at the Dew Drop Inn, 308/423-2191.

Jim Pfaff

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA
CALIFORNIA DELTA

Largemouth Bass » The river delta of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers meanders over 1,000 miles from Sacramento to the Pacific Ocean, coursing through sloughs and around hidden backwater ponds that are home to largemouth bass that often top 10 pounds. Shallow patterns rule—flippin' and froggin' are among the foremost.

Contact: Guide Bobby Barrack, 925/584-1018, bobbybarrack.com; Comfort Suites, (in Oakley), 925/755-1222, comfortsuites.com.

Steve Quinn

LAKE TEXOMA OKLAHOMA/TEXAS

Stripers » It's one of the best numbers lakes in the country, but there's also a big run of fish surpassing 10 pounds—and May fishing is as good as it gets.

Contact: Capt. Steve Barnes, txfishingguide.com; Guides Bill and Chris Carey and Dave Wand, striperexpress.com.
