

Nebraska State Historical Society's Historic Preservation Conference June 14

The Nebraska State Historical Society is hosting its first annual conference, “Building Community – Preservation is Place-making” June 14 in Omaha. Click on the link or logo below to view the entire program. The conference “Building Community...” will address how to develop a “sense of place” in Nebraska communities, an important aspect of making towns more attractive to tourists.

Nebraska Preservation Conference on June 14!

